

And here's more. . .

In a few short months, we'll have in our hands a beautiful book covering Chuckatuck's history, full of memories and vintage pictures provided by hundreds of locals. Included with the book will be a DVD containing audio interviews and other exciting information.

The chapter headings will give you a quick glimpse into the book: Geology – Nansemond Indians – 17-20th Centuries – Community Connections – Early Education – Community Activities – Recreation and Entertainment – Wars – Schools – Old Houses – People and Events – Acknowledgement and Memoriams.

Be sure to visit our website, ChuckatuckHistory.com, and check for continual updates. You will learn all kinds of things you never knew!

Progress Report

The Greater Chuckatuck Historical Foundation is making excellent progress on publishing the history of the greater Chuckatuck area, a combination book/DVD dedicated to the preservation of the history of Greater Chuckatuck.

At the end of our second year, June 30, 2011, Phases 1 (Organizing) and 2 (Collecting Information) are complete. Our volunteers recorded 82 interviews with written summaries, drafted chapters of materials, and scanned over 2,000 photos and documents for use in creating the book.

Phase 3 (Creating) is in progress. A professional creative team consisting of writers, a photographer and a graphic designer will have a first draft to us by August 1.

By October 1, the book will be ready for the printer, and Phase 4 (Publishing) will begin.

Phase 5 (Distribution) is slated to begin on December 1. We want the book to be available for purchase for this year's Christmas giving.

Phase 6 (Archiving) will continue into 2012 and beyond, with plans for an accessible location and easy use. We intend for the archives to be a community resource for all interested in learning more about their families and the surrounding Greater Chuckatuck community. We always welcome your photos and other pertinent information. Whatever is not used in the book will be placed in the archives.

Visit ChuckatuckHistory.com for more details.

Financial Report

We are pleased to report that we have had sufficient income to cover the moderate expenses of our first fiscal years, 2009-2011.

Looking ahead for 2011 and beyond, however, we will require significant funding for contract services, the publishing of the book and DVD, website development and the creation of a working archive that will ably serve the community.

Your donations and book/DVD orders will help make this happen.
